HIGHLIGHTS (NUMBERS AS ON THE 3D MAP)

- 1 Arnolfo Tower
 The 95 m tower: 418 steps, no lift, booked slots on its own ticket, not for children under 6, and closed when it rains (the medieval walkway can stay open).
- 2 Hall of the Five Hundred (Salone dei Cinquecento)
 The council hall on the first floor, with Vasari's battle scenes on the walls and Michelangelo's Genius of Victory; the Studiolo of Francesco I opens off its south end.
- 3 Rooms of the Priors: Hall of Lilies and Map Room
 On the second floor, west side: Donatello's original Judith and Holofernes in the Hall of Lilies and the 16th-century globe and painted maps of the Wardrobe.
- 4 Apartments of the Elements
 The 16th-century apartments built for Cosimo I on the east side, with Vasari's frescoes of the gods and the Terrace of Juno looking towards Santa Croce.
- 5 Loggia dei Lanzi
 The open-air sculpture gallery on the square, with Cellini's Perseus and Giambologna's Rape of the Sabine Women.
- 6 Piazza della Signoria
 The civic square on two sides of the palace; the copy of Michelangelo's David stands at the main door.
- 7 Fountain of Neptune
 Ammannati's marble fountain at the north-west corner of the palace.
