FLOOR PLAN

Uffizi plan: second floor

HIGHLIGHTS (NUMBERS AS ON THE 3D MAP)

- East wing: Giotto to Botticelli (second floor)
The visit starts at the top of the Grand Ducal Staircase and runs south along the east corridor: Giotto and Cimabue, then Botticelli's Birth of Venus and Primavera and the Tribune.
- West wing: Leonardo, Raphael, Michelangelo; first floor
Back north along the west corridor: Leonardo's Annunciation, Raphael and Michelangelo's Tondo Doni, the Niobe Room; then down to the first floor for Titian's Venus of Urbino and Caravaggio's Medusa.
- Terrace and café over the Loggia dei Lanzi
The roof of the Loggia dei Lanzi is the terrace of the gallery's cafeteria, with views of Palazzo Vecchio's tower and the square.
- Vasari Corridor
The 1565 elevated passage from the west wing over Ponte Vecchio to Palazzo Pitti and the Boboli Gardens, reopened in December 2024; it needs a ticket with the Corridor supplement and a booked time slot.
- Piazza della Signoria and the Loggia dei Lanzi
Florence's civic square at the north end of the piazzale, with the open-air sculptures of the Loggia dei Lanzi and the copy of Michelangelo's David.
- Palazzo Vecchio and Arnolfo tower
The town hall since 1299, next to the gallery's east wing; the 95 m tower can be climbed with a separate ticket.
- Ponte Vecchio
The medieval bridge with the goldsmiths' shops, about 200 m west of the gallery along the river; the Vasari Corridor runs above it.
